

The proposed 10-year plan undermines public mail service! As an older citizen who relies on regular delivery of critical medication, I count on reliable, prompt mail service as do millions of others across the nation. The US government must adequately provide and protect this lifeline.

Also, the US postal service must remain viable and strong as our nation moves to increased voting by mail. Any effort to weaken the US postal service is a crime against democracy!

Thank you.